Deductions under this policy are applied on an occurrence basis and shall not exceed $100.00. Deductible amount: $ _____. If the contractor may be liable, the company may be liable. If the contractor cannot or does not handle a claim, the company assumes responsibility to see that the claim receives prompt attention, including the determination of the contractor's liability, and payment in full to the extent of that liability.

Lack of cooperation from the contractor for any reason (including contractor bankruptcy) is no defense. If necessary, the company shall seek from the claimant affidavits or other supporting documentation to permit a determination of liability.

When requested by the contracting officer, the company will provide, within thirty (30) days, a duplicate original of said policy and all endorsements thereto. The contracting officer reserves the right to reject certificates of insurance from insurance companies if they fail to provide adequate protection.

The certificate may not be cancelled without cancellation of said policy. Such cancellation or any material change may be effected by the company or the contractor only by giving thirty (30) days notice in writing to the

Such notice will commence to run from the date said notice is actually received.

Insurance and surety companies must be legally authorized to issue policies of warehousemen's legal liability insurance in each state that the contractor is authorized to operate or be authorized to issue such policies in the state in which the contractor has its principal place of business. The underwriter of warehousemen's legal liability insurance must have a policyholder's rating of "A" or better in Best's Insurance Guide.
